

So now they call claiming to be not-for profits that are offering a free assesment of some kind. After that, it becomes a sale. Lets' put an end to this now - I have a telephone I pay for and you regulate. It is not a service for water in your basement fly by night credit repair firms to use as a billboard.